About the Author

Born and reared in Taunton, Massachusetts, CharDell “Dell” Self is a faith-based, professional communicator. She is trained and certified as a public speaker coach, Christian leadership coach, Christian life coach, and faith-based vision board specialist. Dell is also a writing strategist and author of 20+ publications.

Dell's journey to authorship began with many rocks and boulders that left her with no money and no book. Through her husband's advice, she decided to use what she already had. She possessed a computer along with the ability to read and process information.

Dell has spent years searching the internet, taking courses, studying manuals, attending writers conferences, and rubbing elbows with editors and other book professionals. A journey filled with one frustration after another, Dell emerged from those days determined to help others avoid the headaches of not even knowing enough to ask the right questions. Because of this, she created the Head to Hand Writer's Workshop (originally named S.T.E.P.S. to Authorship) in 2014. This workshop is designed for both the future author as well as the already self-published author.

In the words of the founder, “Writing a book and becoming an author should not be reserved for the rich or elite only. Many have something to contribute that others need to hear.” Dell states further, “I created this program because I didn't want anyone else to have to go through all the tears and frustrations I did in order to become a published author.”

As a certified public speaker coach, Dell is committed to equipping nervous, rambling talkers with the tools to become confident, purposeful communicators. As a result, Dell created a five-week, public speaking course titled Speak Through Me Public Speaker Masterclass. If you prefer, there's a mini course titled Deliver Your Message! which contains twenty-five lessons in communication. Visit the Speak Through Me Communications website and get started for free.

If you have a book in your head, but you're stumped as to how to get it in your hands, Dell's book programs can solve that problem because she loves turning writers into authors.

As a speaker, Dell is described as “Engaging,” “Delightfully funny,” and “A must hear.”

Visit Dell on her website, www.SpeakThroughMe.com, for booking information and available services.
